

Michelle "Shelly" Sanders, 52

Michelle "Shelly" Sanders was born to Richard (Dick) and Annastelle Sanders on June 13, 1957. She passed from this life to the next in Lynwood, Wash. on March 28, 2010 at the age of 52. Shelly was preceded in death by her grandparents, Bubs and Toots Long and Elma Sanders. She was also welcomed on the other side by her father, Dick Sanders and her sister, Christie.

Shelly suffered from diabetes and its many complications for many years and her passing finally freed her from her earthly struggle. Blessedly, she passed in her sleep. Shelly leaves behind her son, Nate and his wife Stacie, her mother, Annastelle Sanders, her sister and brother-in-law, Joan Sanders Borneman and Randy McIntyre, her brother and sister-in-law, Dick Sanders and Brenda Johnson. She also leaves her loving nephew, Ben Borneman, and his son, with whom Shelly was most fascinated, Kieran Holbrook Borneman.

Shelly was a kind and artistic soul who loved horses and cats and dogs and the beauty of the sunrise that was always just beyond her reach. Her family wishes her to be remembered as she was: an imperfect human being in an imperfect world. Celebrate her freedom. And, because Shelly loved animals of every size and shape, if you choose, remember her with a donation to Pintler Pets and you will be sure to observe an unexpectedly beautiful rainbow, somewhere in your tomorrow. No public services are planned.
